

ASHLEY AGUILAR

Hometown

Southern California

Expertise

Cheer

ABOUT ASHLEY

Ashley Aguilar was born and raised in Southern California. She started coaching in 2005 at her alma mater high school. From 2005 to 2012 Ashley coached the high school color guard with the marching band. In early 2013, Ashley and her family relocated to Twentynine Palms. Upon relocating, Ashley started coaching youth cheer with the Yucca Valley Lobos. By 2014, Ashley was not only a coach, but the assistant coordinator and remained there until the end of 2015. In 2016, Ashley approached the High Desert Storm team in 29 Palms and convinced them to let her start a cheer program. She was successful in starting it up, but ultimately returned to Yucca Valley Lobos as head coordinator in 2017. Ashley took a break in 2018, waiting for an opportunity like American Spirit Athletics to emerge.

Ashley is a mother of three, with two of her children participating in ASA. Ashley likes to visit back home in China Lake as well as adventures with husband and kids and are huge Disney fans. She has a passion for coaching and is excited to bring her skill set to the ASA family.